

DR. SANDRA SINGLETON is a native of Louisville, Kentucky. She was a student at Shawnee High School. She matriculated on to the Jefferson Community College, where she received a certificate in Clerk Stenography. She then advanced her education level to earn a certification as a Certified Nurse's Assistant in which she yet holds. Under the leading of the Lord, she earned a Doctorate in Religious Studies and an Honorary Doctorate in Humanities from Grace Bible College.

Eager to learn she again advanced her education level and matriculated on to Campbellsville University where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Pastoral Ministries, Master of Theology, and a Master in Management and Leadership. She has studied in Criminal Justice, as well as in Marriage & Family Therapy. Dr. Singleton is a candidate for the PhD Program in Management and Leadership.

Dr. Sandra Singleton incorporated The New Beginning Ministries Inc., God's Dwelling Place Inc., and New Motivations LLC., with the state of Kentucky. Dr. Sandra Singleton has been previously featured on local T.V. and on the radio in Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Sandra Singleton is an 21st century visionary. Dr. Sandra Singleton gives all credit to the Lord for her success and accomplishments.