

BIOGRAPHY – La MONTE McNEESE, PhD

Pastor La Monte McNeese is an educationist and purveyor of Biblical accuracy. He responded to his ministerial/evangelistic anointing in the year of 1979 and founded his first church in Europe in 1985.

In 1986, he founded McNeese Bible Academy (now Apologetics Bible College) a Bible institute approved by the Tennessee Higher Education commission to award certificates in Biblical exegesis and specialized theological training.

Despite holding three biblical studies degrees, McNeese is an autodidact. He is eminently respected as an articulate teacher, apologist of the apostolic doctrine, director of Christian education and a two-time international award-winning Aida Ford Scholar.

Pastor McNeese holds ordination status with three organizations:

1. The ONE WAY Clergy & Ministerial Association
2. The International Seminary Ministerial Alliance
3. The Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc.

Not only is he a trained student - graduate of two Billy Graham schools of evangelism, McNeese is an esteemed member of the International Society of Christian Apologetics, and serves on three executive boards, the most esteemed of which is in conjunction with his ambassadorship with the Apostolic Archives International, Inc.

In his current hometown of Clarksville, Tennessee, McNeese is a community servant and founder of several 501(c)(3) faith based, nonprofit corporations, including ONE WAY Academy, a K-12 Homeschool and the Faith Cancer Care Foundation, a critical social service providing respite, support and essentials of life, to chemo/cancer patients and their families.

Pastor McNeese is an accomplished ghostwriter, book publisher and a successful 7-time published author. He has been married to First Lady Tonette Michelle McNeese for 42 years. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Princess Sherrie McNeese – Peterson and LaToya Michelle McNeese. His complete bio can be experienced online at www.drilmcneese.com.
